

I want to express my strongest opposition to repealing any part of or weakening Indiana's No Call List provisions to allow those company's who assert a "prior relationship" to call my home. I do not want to receive these calls. If I need to talk to a banker, a credit card company, a broker or an insurance agent, I have their numbers.